

AN INFORMAL LETTER

ON HOLIDAY IN ROME

Piazza Sant'Anselmo, 2
001531 Rome
Italy
17 november 2009

Dear Susan,

Lisa and I are having a fantastic time. The weather's quite warm for November, and we really like the hotel. From the window you can see right across the river Tiber to Saint Peter's.

We have seen the Trevi Fountain and thrown coins into the water to have good luck and come back again, we also have been to the Spanish Steps, where all the young people usually meet.

Tomorrow we're going to visit the Coliseum and the Roman Forum. However, we might not have time to see everything there is here, as you can imagine. There are so many historic places to see, you can find anything interesting on any corner!

Food is not a problem here, you know we both love pasta and here there's more variety, of course. People are really friendly and I'm learning lots of Italian words. It's a beautiful language.

We are very happy that we came here, but of course we miss you all.

See you soon,
Brad and Lisa.
