

International festivals

Read and find these pieces of information.

The festival celebrates New Year in spring.-

A festival more than 300 years old.-

Men are dressed as the devil-

It is held at the end of April-

Historical decorations give an air of seriousness to this fest.-

The new parades date back to the 19th century and were started by students-

A celebration which is held in September in In-Gall-

It is held to celebrate the end of winter-

This first masquerade was celebrated in the city in 1840.-

There are piping competitions and the throwing of hammers.-

It is a festival to marry.-

12,000 people may attend the processions at this festival-

You may come across a bear here-

A festival that lasts for five months.-

It is the youngest of them all-

It starts at night, then the lights are more visible-

In this festival, the jumpers take all the evil away-